Information about the City and/or Neighborhood	1. Neighborhood where IES Rafael Perez Estrada is located: Tiro de Pichón -https://es.wikipedia.org/wiki/Tiro_de_Pich%C3%B3n -https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6joacGDxmJI -Across the street from the school is a cafe where you can get a coffee and tostada in the morning before class or during break 2. City of Málaga: -https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/M%C3%A1laga -https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yMc6iywWMh8 -Málaga is a beautiful city with lots of culture, tourism, and things to do; there are plenty of bars, clubs, and language exchanges in the center and all around the city; other auxiliaries are constantly messaging in the group chat if and where they are planning on meeting up and what activities they are planning on doing, so this is a great way to make friends → don't be afraid to join other group chats for hiking, board games, or more specific groups like the Estudiantes Latinos/POC chats 3. Cool Spots within Malaga: -https://www.wikiloc.com/hiking-trails/en-valley-of-carved-trees-mount-victoria-malaga-circular-124762670 -https://www.alcazabamalaga.com/es/ -https://centrepompidou-malaga.eu/plan-your-visit/ -https://laconcepcion.malaga.eu/ (free on Sunday afternoons) -La Malagueta Beach (some Auxes play volleyball here on Fridays) 4. Málaga is Expensive -Compared to other cities within Spain, Malaga can be more expensive than usual -It is recommended to find private classes that you can give after your classes at the high school; ask teachers, put up posters, or look in the group chat to see if there are any opportunities that work for you (average price asked per class is 15€)
Commute to School/Locality	- The Public Transport in Malaga is called the EMT (for buses) Link to the bus schedules (there is also an app called EMT): https://www.emtmalaga.es/emt-classic/home.html?lang=en - Individual bus fares are 1.40€ -You can get a bus card (red color card) and buy 10 tickets at a time (~6€) or you can buy for the whole month -If you are under 25, you can get a Tarjeta Mas Joven from this EMT Support Center (you will need to fill out the form and bring a passport sized photo, your contract with the school, and an ID; it costs around 6€); you will be able to buy reduced priced monthly or 10 trip tickets with this card → monthly (mensual) price: ~13.50€ -You can also ask teachers at your school if they would be willing to carpool depending on where you live in Malaga -Taking public transportation to IES Rafael Perez Estrada from the center takes around 30 minutes; walking takes around an hour
